June, 1959

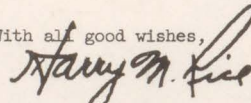

To the Members of the Class of 1959:

The theme of your fine yearbook is "Storehouse of Knowledge." Initially this connoted to me a sense of mere acquisition of information; a second and more illuminating appraisal gave understanding that knowledge essentially is not a collection of data, but a clear perception of truth. Just as one small candle can shut out all the blackness of night, knowledge can lead the way to light and to right, in a world half darkened by curtains of iron or bamboo. Knowledge may be power, but it can be power for good only if we remember that knowledge is a clear perception of truth.

From knowledge, and reverence, patriotism, service and loyalty, we learn to live. That is, we learn to live in a great democratic republic, where our quest is for truth, for justice and for human dignity. These, surely, are in your "Storehouse of Knowledge."

We on the staff of the Bloomfield Senior High School have been your teachers and your guides during these past three years. You are now at the threshold of a more mature life, and it is with a real sense of pride and partnership that I, for the entire staff, salute your theme for Memories, 1959. Let this theme continue to be your - and our, guide over the years. Let us respect and be guided by knowledge, and let us respect excellence.

With all good wishes,

HARRY M. RICE

Foreword

Democracy, U.S.A. brand, is the product of grass roots government and cracker barrel politics. Thus—the theme of our yearbook, The General Store—to represent the storehouse of give and take ideas and opinions; and specifically applied to school, the Storehouse of Knowledge.

The cover abstracts the idea of the old-fashioned store servicing a community and of our school training us for citizenship. The curved figure is the proprietor, the sphere he holds is significant of the knowledge imparted to us.

The General Store is composed of its proprietor, the customer, the staples, the added sugar and spices, and the old competitive cracker barrel checker games. The proprietor symbolizes the teachers; the customer, the seniors. The extra-curricular activities are the sugar and spices, our athletic program, the checker games that were played over the cracker barrel. The staples are the curricula.

Bloomfield High School, exemplification of education in democracy, is represented by the General Store as one Storehouse of Knowledge in the enterprise of Democracy, U.S.A.

Pro

As the proprietor sells his merchandise, so do the faculty purvey to us their knowledge and their experience in applying knowledge to successful living.

In the way that the proprietor of a general store devotes himself to the needs of his customers, so do our proprietors, the faculty and administration, give unstintingly of themselves to our needs both mental and physical. They have been our personal friends, wise and understanding, in these, our formative years.

We, the students owe more than we can express. Whatever our success is to be as future citizens, it is largely due to their guidance and patience.

Retiring from the Board

Dr. Henry T. Hollingsworth

Dr. Jerome C. Salsbury

April of this year, Henry T. Hollingsworth retired from his position as superintendent of schools. He has been associated with the Bloomfield school system for thirty-four years, the last seventeen as coordinator of the total school program. He has felt that the most outstanding attributes of his work were the development and expansion of the educational and building programs of the schools.

Dr. Hollingsworth received his B.S. degree from Washington College, Maryland; his LL.B. from New Jersey Law School; his M.A., and doctorate from Teachers College, Columbia University. He has taught at B.H.S. and has been vice-principal of Park School and Bloomfield Junior High School. In 1941, he was made assistant superintendent of schools. In addition to his work, Dr. Hollingsworth is active in professional organization and in civic community affairs.

After devoting thirty-nine years to Bloomfield's educational system, Jerome C. Salsbury retired this year. Upon graduating from Bucknell University, he spent four years as the teacher in a one-room-schoolhouse. From 1920 to 1947, this eminent educator held various teaching and administrative posts. Meanwhile, he earned his M.A. degree and doctorate from Columbia University.

Dr. Salsbury and his wife reside in Livingston, where both relax by gardening. The "green thumb" tendency is evident in Dr. Salsbury's plant-filled office. The Rotary, Bloomfield Education Association, and the New Jersey Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development occupy his interests. Dr. Salsbury's unfailing interest in young people and in promoting the profession of teaching has benefited Bloomfield and its educational system greatly.

MISS ANNA J. MILLER

Dedicated people are hard to find. Bloomfield High School has been fortunate to have Anna J. Miller working unstintingly for thirty-six years as a capable member of the history department.

Preparing first at Plattsburgh State Normal, Miss Miller received a Bachelor of Science and Master's degree in both literature and social science at Columbia University. She majored in advanced political science and international economics at the New School for Social Research. Summers she studied at Harvard, Duke and Cornell in the humanities, diplomatic history and political science.

Miss Miller will be remembered for her zest, love for her subject, her guidance, and her participation in school life.

MISS MARJORIE G. ELY

After twenty-four years of teaching with humor, tolerance, and individuality, Miss Marjorie Ely retired last December. Miss Ely received her B.A. from Adelphi College and also studied at other colleges.

During World War II, Miss Ely was a Nurses' Aide. She mailed the STUDENT PRINTS to boys overseas. For two years Miss Ely sponsored the Girl Reserves. Her artistic talents were used while in charge of costumes for the operetta and the main display cabinets.

We will fondly remember Miss Ely for her kindly understanding in all of our contacts with her.

CABOT C. KENDALL

History teacher and tennis coach, Mr. Cabot Kendall retires this year after twenty-three years on the B.H.S. faculty. He received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Brown University. Before coming to Bloomfield, he taught at Montclair Academy, Kents Hill Academy, and Brown University.

Mr. Kendall's subjects covered all phases of history, English, and French. He is a former member of the American Legion, the Italian Forum, and the American Historical Society.

Interested always in putting his subject "across," Mr. Kendall reached his students through his descriptive accounts of vital events in history.

MISS KATHARINE WILLIAMS

When Miss Katharine Williams first came to B.H.S. in 1920, she organized the school library, running it the first nine years, as well as teaching English. She has a B.A. from Barnard College and M.A. from Columbia and has studied widely here and abroad.

She originated the Musical Monday Club, Literary Club, and Senior Forum. She led the Campfire Girls for ten years and a remedial hiking club for fifteen years. A native of Montana, she loves mountain climbing, photography, and travel.

We have shared her eager interests in life, both in and out of books.

We, the Class of 1959, have drawn upon and consumed the stores of knowledge and activities offered us. In our three years at Bloomfield High we have tried to develop our minds and have profited from past experiences and mistakes. As the customer learns from buying and experimenting, so have we learned and sampled the products put forth by the faculty.

In time we all forget, but the Class of 1959 may never forget the fun and rewards of our high school life. May we, the customers, go forth into life with confidence and self-reliance.

ALICE N. VIGEANT

Mrs. Alice Vigeant has come to know each of us personally during the course of the past three years, as advisor to the girls of our class. Countless hours of her time and efforts have been cheerfully spent in helping us with our many problems. She has helped us to discover what we are best suited for and often what is best for us. We shall always be grateful to Mrs. Vigeant for her guidance, advice, and sincere concern.

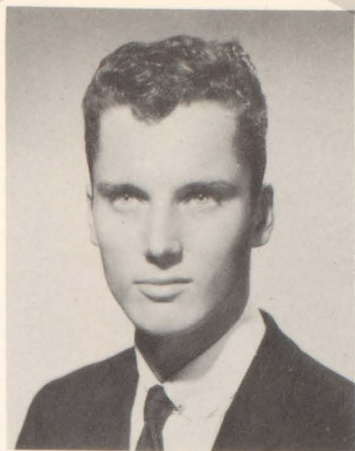

Class Advisors

DONALD DE CAMERA

Class advisor and diligent counselor, Mr. De Camera has been to the boys a good friend, sincere and always frank. When things seemed to be at their worst, and we felt misunderstood and downhearted, his friendly advice and confidence gave us the inspiration to see our problems through. Each of us felt his personal interest. Remembering with gratitude in our hearts, we thank Mr. De Camera for his three years of sound counsel.

Remembering . . .

CAROL ANN DELAND

To anyone who knew her, Carol was the soul of friendship and the essence of youth at its best. The unselfish interest she possessed for everything and everyone gave her the reputation of a loyal friend and an enjoyable companion. The memory of this gay, sprightly little classmate will always be with us. We shall think of Carol as an inseparable member of our class.

Although he is no longer with us, the memory of Jim will long linger in the hearts of his fellow classmates. This quiet but cheerful boy acquired many friends during his two years in B.H.S. To many, his name will bring to mind the ingenious work he did for the display committee and his unfailing support at Bloomfield High School sports events.

JAMES CULLEN

A general store functions mainly to provide its customers with staples, the necessities for living.

Our general store, B.H.S., provides us with the finest basic learning available, offering courses in the preparation for college and for the business world. Our school also meets the needs of the student who is advanced in his class.

Staples

Concrete emphasis was placed this year on pure scholarship achievement. Setting the precedent with honor assemblies after each report, recognition includes a certificate of merit. Students qualify with four A's in major subjects. The recognition assemblies have proven an incentive and an asset. The numbers of A students increased with each report.

HIGH HONORS CERTIFICATE

DAVID GREENBERG

In recognition of your excellence in scholarship for the 2ND marking period, we the Faculty, Staff, and Administration of Bloomfield High School are proud to give you this certificate of meritorious achievement. This achievement is the highest any student can merit in his academic studies in B.H.S. We hope that you will continue this splendid record throughout your high school career.

PARSONS TO PERSONS

Dr. Parsons, English IV, reaches parent through student's councillor, Mr. DeCamera.

Judy Luke and Janice Patten teach French:

A team of two French IV seniors teaching Monday through Thursday in the grades at Center School offered French conversation in the lower grades, some grammar in Grade V and written French in Grade VI. An assembly program for parents is staged in French every May. Other teams this year included: Alison Scott, Pat McGonigle, Mary Porter, Marianne Armando, Ann Yamen, and Margie Angus.

SCHOOL
BY

N. B. H. S.

To the students of Bloomfield High School:

The following guide for appropriate school dress and grooming has been decided upon by a student committee to help you develop habits of good taste in dress. These regulations apply for regular wear during the school day in the school and need not apply when inclement weather conditions are prevalent.

CLOTHES

Tailored clothing such as blouses, sweaters, skirts and simple dresses. Dress trousers, slacks and other proper school wear in good condition.

Sheer blouses without proper undergarments, low-cut blouses and low-cut sweaters, sweaters and knitted clothes too tightly fitted are improper apparel for school. Dungarees, blue jeans, levis, fatigues and shorts are also inappropriate.

SHOES

Saddles, white bucks, gum-drops, loafers and flats with heels. Dress shoes, and other shoes suitable for school.

Ballet slippers and engineer boots and cowboy boots are improper shoes for school.

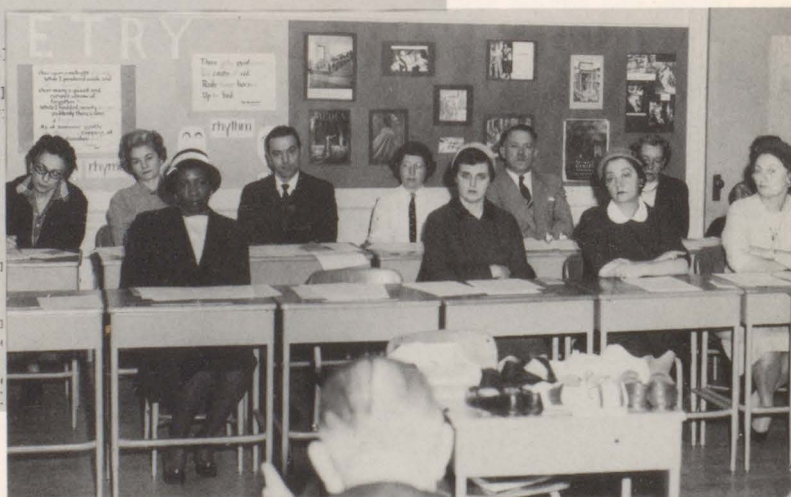

SHIRTS, SWEATERS, ETC.

V-neck sweaters with suitable undergarments, round neck sweaters, dress shirts (with tails in), gaucho shirts (with tails out) and sport shirts are appropriate.

Memories

Literary Advisor Lloyd Gross, master of the caption, Co-ordinating Advisor Gertrude Koch, and Editor-in-Chief Jeff Schiff meet Memories deadline.

Initiative and imagination were the seeds from which MEMORIES '59 was created. Deadlines were our natural enemies but fell before the combined efforts of the yearbook staffs and their advisors. Your book, a sigh of relief and a feeling of satisfaction were the ultimate results.

Flavor

In the days of the general store, men used to sit and play checkers by the hour. To these men the game of checkers involved the sportsmanship and competition present in our school sports today.

The checker and checkerboard depicted on this page symbolize the rivalry and color found in our present-day athletics. Student participation in these sports represents an important phase of school life. The qualities of sportsmanship and fair play are necessary assets for success and happiness in the future.

A gay pageantry of colorful uniforms, twirling skill, cheering ability along with the flagwaving and the zesty music of the B.H.S. band can aptly describe our refreshing half-times. To encourage the audiences to cheer the Bengals on more heartily, the cheerleaders, twirlers, flagwavers and band worked out lively routines. Their long hours of practice certainly were obvious in half time exhibitions.

Injuries

Cut

That Bloomfield High's 1958 football team did not produce as good a record as we would have wished was not the fault of either the players or the coach. It was the result of a number of unavoidable circumstances. The first of these was an unfortunate season-long arm injury to halfback Vin Robertello, of whom Coach Joe Bogusz said, "I think Vinnie was the best player we had." The other incidents, which plagued the Bengals throughout the entire season, appeared in the form of repeated broken bones, concussions, and diseases. As it worked out, the Bengals were unable to field an entire team for any game.

Halfback Al Dean led the Bloomfield High scoring columns with eleven touchdowns for 66 points. Junior John Alves tallied 35 points. Other scorers on the BHS grid crew were Don Heeb, Bill Ashby, Sam Galioto, and Bob Bianco.

Coach George Cella's basketball team had a 17-2 record as they were about to enter the sectional semifinals of the state tournament. They topped Springfield Regional in the first round by a score of 56-37 in a game in which everything clicked smoothly for the Bengals. Unfortunately, the Bengals' two years of basketball domination came to an end with their loss to Weequahic in the next game.

The Bengal cage squad won its first ten games of the season with little apparent trouble to bring the three-year streak to 60 games. After that, however, the play began to look somewhat dulled, for the team, against fairly easy opponents, was visibly outplayed and had to come from behind to win by a small margin. This went on for four games until Nutley, having one of its better shooting nights, stayed one step ahead of the Bengals, who could never get the key basket. Nutley finally won, 51-49, by a mere two points. This stopped the streak of 64. Although the Bengals hit bottom when they lost to the South Side team, 40-38, most observers still picked Bloomfield as the state top aggregation. They seemed to have recovered their form during the opening of the state tourney.

Elson and Heeb, in addition, were varsity lettermen during their sophomore year, thus receiving the letter the maximum of three times in the spring sport. Bloomfield High's track team could look forward to a successful campaign because of the assistance of ten returning varsity lettermen, including the team's only three men to score more than 50 points last year. Returning seniors were co-captain Tom Gunzelman, Al Dean, Mike Milo, Tony Rossi, Gerry Goldstein, Bill Ashby, Steve Whetstone, and Bill Mulhern. Juniors were John Alves and Jim Myers. B.H.S.'s other co-captain was Dave Jenkins.

Last year, Dean was the high scorer with 59½ points, while Myers tallied 58¼ and Alves scored 55.

Cross Country

The extremely underrated 1958 edition of the B.H.S. Cross Country Team got off its knees, after being humbled during its first two meets, to go for eight straight victories and second place in the Big Ten Conference. Coach Marshall Butler gained full reign of the hill and dale squad for the first time in his three years at Bloomfield. The formidable squads of Clifton and Seton Hall remained the only teams who walked away victors in Bloomfield

Dual Meets, thus posting an 8-2 season.

Sportorama

Early Bird Basketball

Seniors Frank Zak, Joe Reilly, Pat Ronco, Bill Harrington and Drew Sampier won over the junior team with a score of 34-28. The seniors have won fourteen games straight.

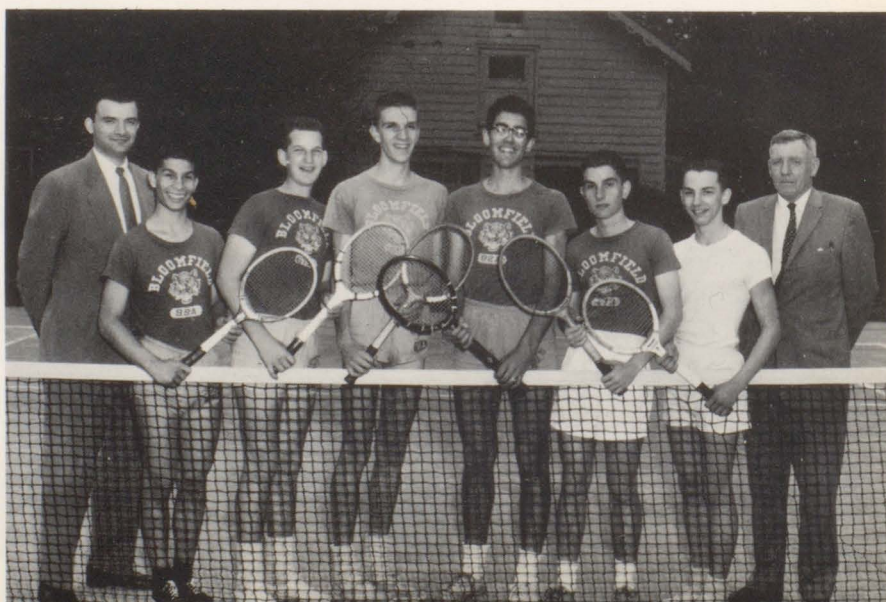

Bowling

At mid-season, Bloomfield High's bowling team was cruising along in first place in the North Jersey Inter-scholastic Bowling League, with a perfect 6-0 record. Coach George Madden's crew defeated their closest contender, Belleville, which has a 5-1 mark, and left the way open for an undefeated season. Senior members of the team are: William Ashby, Anthony Duda, Michael Milo, Frank Zak, and Stewart Dalzell; and juniors are: George Henderson, Ray Scavone, and Thomas Yeasky.

Tennis Team

New coach Barry Hoffman tries to better last year's 0-10 record. Eleven B.H.S. boys tried out.

Drill Team

Comprising the Drill Team are thirty-two lovely Bengalites, usually referred to as Scotties. Costumed in bright red and white plaid, they have performed at football and basketball games and on other special occasions under the direction of Marion Lo Prete. The Drill Team, first organized by Edith Russell, has become a tradition at B.H.S.

Girls' Swimming

Girls' swimming troupe runs three units each year, for beginners, intermediate, ballet and diving.

Archery

"Have bow and arrow, will travel!" The eighteen B.H.S. sharpshooters, under the guidance of Marion LoPrete, do just that. Shooting for various contests and visiting different schools and organizations . . . plus practice . . . keep their arrows headed straight for the gold.

To the Class of 1959:

This year's class of 530 is the largest ever to be represented in a B.H.S. annual. However, quantity has played second string to quality throughout MEMORIES '59. This is not merely an accident---it is the result of untiring effort on the part of MEMORIES' editors and their staffs, and also constant aid from our advisors, Mrs. Gertrude C. Koch, Mr. William Willever, Mr. Clinton Eller and Mr. Lloyd Grosse. We are fortunate in having had such a fine advisory board.

Next to the diploma, MEMORIES represents the last official document any of us will receive from B.H.S. Unlike the diploma, however, MEMORIES is not an end in itself. In years to come, a quick look through its pages will bring us back once again to a very happy segment of our lives. With this in mind, I proudly present. . . MEMORIES '59.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey M. Schiff
